

New appointment to the board of Burn Stewart Distillers Ltd

Release date: January 08

Burn Stewart Distillers is pleased to announce the appointment of a new Director to the Board of Burn Stewart Distillers.

With immediate effect, Andrew Calder is appointed to the newly created position of Sales Director for the company. In this role, Andrew will assume responsibility for all cased and bulk revenue streams and will be the key sales interface for the company with the CLWB international sales platform.

The appointment both recognises the CL Group's commitment to continue to grow and develop the Burn Stewart business and also rewards the considerable contribution Andrew Calder has made to the company over the last 12 years in which he has successfully held a number of UK and international sales positions.
